

RUSSIANS ARE NOT ADVANCING

Report That Thirty Thousand Japs Lost Their Lives Is Denied By The War Office.

CONCENTRATING THEIR FORCES

Port Arthur Is Being Daily Closed In On More Tightly Than Ever—St. Petersburg Does Not Know The Truth.

[Special by Scripps-McRae.]
Shanghai, July 16.—It is reported here that the Chinese Daily News steamer Fawan has been captured by the Russians off Port Arthur and towed into the harbor.

London, July 16.—According to the Morning Post's Shanghai correspondent, a naval engagement occurred off Port Arthur on Thursday, but no details have as yet been received of the battle.

New Chwang, July 16.—From the best information obtainable here, it is almost certain that the Japanese forces now completely surround the Russian position below Mukden. The Japanese first and second armies have gradually been so advanced and deployed as to have doubly outflanked the Russians, and it is believed that the latter cannot longer successfully retreat to Hal Cheng. A pitched battle, which may be the one decisive engagement of the war, is therefore now regarded as unavoidable.

Heavy Fighting
Shan Hai Kwan, July 16.—Reports reach here of heavy fighting all the way from Tsuchi Kiao to Hal Cheng and it is believed at last the long-looked-for decisive battle is being fought. Details of the fighting have not reached here yet.

Gen. Kuropatkin is at the front in person. It is said, and is directing the Russian defense.

From Yankou comes the news that a strong Japanese column is now operating to the west of the railroad and threatening the extreme right of the Russian position.

Japanese transports have been reported off Yankou and rumor has it that the Japanese contemplate the landing of another army there to assist in the operations against the Russian position.

Oyama at Port Arthur
Che Foo, July 16.—Marshal Oyama and his staff have been at Port Arthur and examined the Japanese position there. Oyama has placed Gen. Kodama, his chief of staff, in command at Port Arthur, while he has gone north to join Oku. This is the news which reaches here through Chinese sources today. It is not known whether or not the Japanese commander-in-chief proposes to return to Port Arthur after consultation with the generals in command of the armies now closing in on Gen. Kuropatkin. If he does, the assault on Port Arthur's main defenses will probably be postponed until his return, otherwise it is believed Kodama will order the general assault at once.

The last fighting, it is reported, has left the way to Port Arthur practically open to the Japanese columns.

Togo's Ships in Good Shape
Information from good sources reaches your correspondent that Togo's blockading fleet is in prime condition. The vessels have been sent one or two at a time to Sasebo to be cleaned and overhauled and to give officers and men the relaxation needed from the strain of the long blockade. Every one of his larger vessels, it is said, have made the trip and now he has his whole force in prime condition and ready for fighting. The smaller vessels have been co-operating with the armies in the north, but most of them have now returned.

Every indication points to the fact that the crisis at Port Arthur is close at hand. No news of serious fighting either at sea or on land had reached here at this writing.

Move on Vladivostok Soon
Tokio, July 16.—Japanese plans for a combined land and sea movement against Vladivostok have been about completed and as soon as the operations about Port Arthur have reached a stage which will permit of the withdrawal from the blockade there of an adequate sea force the movement on Vladivostok will begin. The troops have been selected and are in readiness to go aboard the transports at a day's notice. There are 40,000 of them with 200 field pieces and an adequate siege train. It is confidently predicted that the movement will begin within two weeks, as by that time everybody in Tokio believes Port Arthur will be in the hands of the Japanese and the squadron there will either have been captured or destroyed.

Plant Cannon
St. Petersburg, July 16.—Gen. Sakharoff reports that the Japanese during Thursday and Friday occupied many positions and placed cannon on the heights near the railway north of Kailing. There has been but few skirmishes so far.

War Office
Tokio, July 16.—The war office denies the report current for several days past that thirty thousand Japanese were killed or wounded in an unsuccessful attack on Port Arthur.

Liaoyang, July 16.—General Samsonoff seriously checked the Japanese advance in the direction of Yinkow July 11. His Cosacko ambushed the Japanese column and put 1,000 out of action. The Japanese attempted to advance to Yinkow along the coast, but they were hindered by the marshy country, which also increased their difficulties in carrying off their dead and wounded during the retreat.

The Russians had expected a movement in this direction and a company of cavalry with two guns laid in ambush in the high grass, catching the Japanese in the most difficult part of the coast road and shattering their advance column. The artillery fire of the Russians was splendid, and the Japanese were unable to make an effective reply. They were forced to retreat. The Russian losses were six killed and seven wounded.

Fighting is imminent at Tatchekiao and Hal-Cheng. The Japanese are entrenched six miles south of Tatchekiao. Much skirmishing is taking place. The weather is favorable for the movement of troops. No rain has fallen for a whole week. The thermometer has registered as high as 50 degrees centigrade.

It is rumored that a Japanese column has appeared on the Mukden road.

Massed on Enemy's Rear.
Tatchekiao, July 16.—The Japanese have withdrawn from the west side of the railroad and are massing their armies on the Russian rear. Reconnoissances in force carried out by Russian cavalry and artillery Thursday and Friday almost as far south as Kailchow failed to disclose the Japanese. A diversion is expected from Ta Pass. It is possible that some of the Japanese forces have been drawn off to Port Arthur to replace the terrible losses of July 10.

Rennenkampf Is Wounded.
St. Petersburg, July 16.—General Rennenkampf was wounded, but not seriously, in a skirmish. A bullet passed through the calf of one of his legs. General Sakharoff, who reported the wounding of Rennenkampf, says it occurred July 13, between Liaoyang and Salmatshu, and that the Japanese were repulsed.

Madison Humane Society Gets After Man Who Turned His Horse Out To Die.
(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., July 16.—Otto Voelke is under arrest in this city for turning out to pasture a horse dying from old age and providing no food or water for the animal. The horse was unable to arise to its legs. Humane Officer Beattie is prosecuting on the charge of cruelty to animals. Voelke is a Hebrew vegetable pedler.

Good Work in Great Britain.
In Great Britain there has been a general clearing up of slums, a widening of streets and a tendency to a better housing of the people, the creation of parks and the purifying of water supplies resulting in a decrease in the death rate that is most noticeable, averaging in a great many cities as much as 4 per 1,000 in three years.

Political Mix Up In Madison Politics Makes Several Changes.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., July 16.—Dr. J. C. Sommers of this city has been elected by the Dane county poor commissioners to succeed Dr. J. P. Donovan whose term expired. The sensational feature of the appointment is the fact that a week ago Dr. Sommers was city health officer and Mr. Donovan was city physician. Now their offices have been changed about. Dr. Sommers was removed as health officer and Dr. Donovan appointed in his stead. Both are prominent physicians of the city having large practices.

SUGAR GOES UP IN DULUTH FIRE

TUGMAN LOSES LIFE IN WATER

Drowns While Attempting to Escape From Craft That Is Being Swept by the Fierce Blaze Coming From the Warehouse and Docks.

Duluth, Minn., July 16.—Four hundred thousand dollars' worth of property was destroyed Friday afternoon at the Omaha docks and warehouses, owned by the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha railway, and one man, a cook named George Smith, on the tug Abbott, was drowned in an attempt to make his escape from the craft as the flames swept over it with cyclonic rapidity from the docks.

The fire started in the northeast corner of the building and swept through the long sheds like a tornado, taking everything that stood in its path. In three minutes after the flames were discovered almost the entire length of the sheds was a fiery furnace, belching forth volumes of dense, black smoke that rolled away over the city, crumbling the freight cars that stood beside it like tinder.

Disastrous and Spectacular.
It was the most disastrous fire witnessed in Duluth in years and the most spectacular. Thousands of people lined the docks, the viaduct, the tops of box-cars and the sides of the hill to witness the destruction of thousands of dollars' worth of property.

Losses entailed in the fire have been estimated by the officials of the interested companies. George M. Smith, general agent, places the value of the contents of the freight shed at $200,000 or more. The value of the shed itself was $50,000. Two hundred tons of package freight had been taken from the steamer Mancy just previous to the fire, which is not included in the estimate. Manager Inman of the tug company values the tugs, which he thinks will be an almost total loss, at $20,000 for the Inman, $15,000 for the Excelsior and $10,000 for the Abbott. In addition to this was the damage to ten Northwestern freight cars amounting to $5,000.

Burns 100 Cars of Sugar.
The entire Omaha shed, with all of its contents, the dock and nearly a score of loaded freight cars, are a complete loss. In addition to two of the tugs of the Great Lakes Towing company, which were burned to the water's edge, and another that is badly damaged.

The great freight shed, 1,500 feet in length and 80 feet in width, was filled with merchandise of all kinds. Sugar, coffee, flour, canned goods and almost every conceivable kind of general merchandise made up the contents. There were over 100 car loads of sugar alone in the building.

Insurance on the dock property, warehouses and merchandise is covered by a blanket policy in possession of the headquarters of the company. That on the tugs, which belong to the Great Lakes Towing company fleet, is placed by officials at Cleveland and said to be ample to cover the losses.

William Kennedy, president of the defunct Citizens' bank at Enid, Ok., was arrested, charged with making false statements of the bank's condition. He entered a plea of not guilty and was placed under bond of $5,000.

Secretary Hay has left Washington for Lake Sunapee, New Hampshire. He probably will be absent until about the 1st of October unless some emergency arises requiring his presence in Washington.

Richard Watson Gilder is almost entirely recovered from his attack of appendicitis. The report that he had rented Four Brooks farm to Samuel L. # IMPORTING A FORCE OF MEN

Armour Has Brought Three Hundred Negroes Into Chicago To Take Strikers Places.

STRIKERS WILL STAND FIRMLY

Gompers Goes To New York—This Is Taken To Mean That The Strike Will Be A Long One By Those Inside.

(Special by Scripps-McRae.)
Chicago, Ill., July 16.—President Donnelly and his aides met this morning to draft a reply to the packers' proposal for arbitration. While Donnelly intimated the reply might be conciliatory and ask for another conference with the packers practically it is certain the strikers will not submit to the plan of arbitration which will possibly involve a reduction of wages. Whether the packing trades will join in the strike with its twelve thousand workers is to be decided at a special meeting tonight. The pessimism as to the outcome of negotiations prevails among the strikers, which is augmented by the departure of Samuel Gompers for New York which is taken to indicate there is not much hope of immediate settlement. Armour imported three hundred negro laborers during the night. Five hundred police are on duty in the packing house district today. Everything is quiet.

Submit Plans
At this o'clock this afternoon the reply of President Donnelly was submitted to the conference of the packers. It is announced the firemen and other employees will not be called out unless necessary.

Meanwhile, with every hour's delay in reaching a settlement a sentiment in favor of a sympathetic strike is growing among nearly 12,000 other employees at the stockyards. The temper of the union men was reflected by President Donnelly, who said: "We will die fighting before submitting to arbitration as proposed by the packers. Their system of arbitration would mean the complete annihilation of trade unionism in the stock yards."

Sympathetic Strike Likely.
Whether the Packing Trades central body will call a sympathetic strike will be determined at a special meeting. Nearly 12,000 men employed in various trades at the yards and belonging to thirty unions are connected with this organization. These employees are not bound by any agreement with the packers.

Ever since the strike of the butchers was called the members of the Central have been discussing the advisability of a sympathetic strike, and the majority have expressed themselves in favor of such action in event of failure to settle the strike of the butchers. Nearly all of the Central Body unions have been negotiating for some time to secure new agreements with the packers; and dissatisfaction with their present working conditions has tended to create a sentiment in favor of joining the butchers.

Object to the Police.
Should a sympathetic strike be determined upon it would complicate the situation greatly. The strike would nearly double the number of employees who have left their posts, and also make a settlement a much harder task.

Employees in the building trades at the yards are dissatisfied because they are obliged to work in buildings guarded by the police. These men for years have objected to working any place where the police have been called to preserve order and protect property, and the present conditions are declared by them to be intolerable.

Officials of downtown unions, composed of men in similar trades, have held conferences with President Donnelly in regard to a sympathetic strike of the stock yards employees, and these officials called upon President Gompers and discussed the situation with him.

First Violence
St. Paul, Minn., July 16.—The first actual violence of the strike was this morning when the strikers attacked fifteen office employees and several strike breakers as they were entering the Swift plant in South St. Paul. The men were roughly handled but none seriously hurt. The leader of the strikers was arrested.

All at Work
Kansas City, Mo., July 16.—The Schwarzschilds and Salsberger plants joined the other packers today in slaughtering. Only one small plant is idle. Otherwise the situation is unchanged.

ONE VICTIM OF SUNSTROKE TODAY

R. R. Sherman Was Prostrated While Mowing A Lawn—Ambulance Did Not Respond.

While mowing grass not far from the Whiting residence on Milwaukee avenue this morning, R. R. Sherman, a tenmer, was overcome by the heat and fell to the ground. Charles Stoller happened to be passing and hastened to secure some water and go to the man's assistance. Fred Capelle also happened by at the time and went to a telephone and called for the ambulance. As the latter is not a public concern it did not respond and Mr. Stoller finally hitched up his horse and took Mr. Sherman to his home near the stand-pipe. He had revived somewhat by the time he had reached home.

OLD FOGY KEEPS UP THE TALKING

REFERS TO MANY LITTLE THINGS OF IMPORTANCE.

THE GENERAL SENTIMENT.

Calls For More Careful Protection Of Property—Ordinances Are Neglected.

To the Editor: I hope the public took my last letter in the spirit it was meant. I do not intend to say that the present police officers are not efficient, but merely stated that matters occur every day which are not handled. However, I suppose the police question will continue to be argued pro and con for many months before anything definite is done. The old motto: "Lock the barn door after the horse is stolen," seems to pervade the atmosphere. I should have thought the livestock robbery would have demonstrated something and the Zimmerman murder in the midst of our city park might have taught a lesson, but evidently it did not and nothing short of a volcanic eruption will turn the tide of affairs into the channel of right and justice. A hotel keeper can sell liquor to a minor and pay his fine quietly in the court without any public demonstration, but if some other liquor dealer who has not the pull sells to a minor and is arrested he is made to suffer open shame.

Justice to All.

However, it might be said right here that there is such a thing as judicial clemency and discrimination. It is not necessary to be a mere brute to be a policeman and policeman have feelings the same as anyone else. I am afraid we blame the policeman for too many things that they are not to blame for. Take for instance the robbery in the First ward. Several persons saw the burglar enter the house, rob and saw him leave. There was a telephone in the house. The answer is not made to this argument: "Where could we have found one?" That is true, where? But nevertheless an attempt might have been made and if the person telephoning was lucky they might have struck an officer and thus aided in capturing the criminal. I would like to state right here that the police are doing good work in the court house park. As I mentioned several times before, rough characters have congregated there during the day and have drank from bottles on the grounds. Then they have staid until late at night annoying many people with the noise they created. During the past week I have kept watch and have failed to discover any of this trouble prevalent. This is due to having an officer on the park side of the river during the day and a good officer on duty at night. I hope I was not too hard on the same officer in my last letter. I did not complain in much of his efficiency as I did to the manner of his appointment.

Ball Games.

In the portion of the city where I live there has been much complaint of ball games in the street and bicycle riding on the sidewalks. This has not been stopped. Bicycle riding on the sidewalk is excusable at times when the streets are rough but as a custom it is tiresome to pedestrians and the ordinance should be enforced in this regard. Bicycle riders forget that there is any danger to people walking along the walk as they ride by. They seem to forget that children may become confused and step in front of the wheel, but they do not forget that the sidewalk is much better riding on than a rough street.

Rough Streets.

And in this connection I would like to say something about the rough streets. I hear complaints daily about the fact that the street commissioner has left long strips of rough stones with sharp edges in many of the streets for many days and that they are ruining the rubber tired carriages and perhaps this is due to overwork and perhaps it is due to carelessness, but either cause should be remedied and the streets should be left so they are a menace to any property. As a general thing our streets are kept exceptionally clean. With the force he has at work they are doing most excellent work and the results obtained are wonderful.

Tramp Question.

There are several districts in the city where tramps congregate each day. One of these chosen resting spots appears to be the railway yards. I have it on good authority that there is liable to be a revolution on the part of at least one railway company if the tramps are not driven out. Many homes are seriously bothered by men asking for old clothing and food and timid women are afraid to be left alone when such vagrants are around. When Chief Hogan was in his prime Janesville was a good town to keep away from, but at the present time the tip seems to have passed around that a stop can be safely made. However, they are here and should be driven out or examples made of a few with a rock pile and a good old hammer to teach them a lesson. Ninety days in the summer time in jail would teach some of these gentlemen of the road to steer clear of Janesville. Jail to a tramp in summer is worse than two years in the winter. Just try it.

OLD FOGGY.

OFF FOR MILWAUKEE TOMORROW MORNING

Members of Janesville Federated Trades and Families Leave at Eight O'clock for Annual Picnic.

Over the St. Paul road at eight o'clock tomorrow morning a large crowd of excursionists who are to participate in the annual picnic of the Janesville Federated Trades at Milwaukee will depart for a day's visit in the metropolis. ## SAW CARP HAUL AT KOSHKONONG

Several Bower City Residents Given a Chance To See How Work Was Done.

A number of our citizens went out to the shores of Lake Koshkonong yesterday to witness the carp haulers haul their big seine near the Mineral Springs. The catch was a good deal of a failure, as only a few hundred pounds were taken from the seine at this haul. The spectators, however, were given a chance to see how this work was done, and quite a force is employed, besides a game warden is constantly in attendance to watch that no game fish be taken. The equipment consists of a small steamer, a tank barge and several small boats. The seine is more than 2000 feet long and after being played out requires the use of a couple of windlasses placed on shore to pull in the haul. Some of the catches have been very successful and as much as 2000 pounds taken at a single haul of the seine. Many of the carp are large, weighing from 10 pounds up, the largest taken from this lake tipped the scales at 27 pounds. The fish are placed in tanks when caught and kept alive until ready for shipment. About a car load is taken each week which are shipped from Port Arkison east in refrigerated cars. Carp fishing will continue on Lake Koshkonong most of the summer, the camp being near Blackhawk clubhouses. The gentlemen engaged in this work have similar outfits at the Madison lakes and elsewhere in the state.

GOLFERS ALL HAD FINE DAY

ROCKFORD TEAM OF THIRTY DEFEATED GO TO 57.

PROFESSIONAL ON LINKS.

"Scottie" McLeod Played Exhibition Contest With Al. Schaller—Many Were Too Weary To Dance.

Despite the call of the home team for volunteers which made things look dubious for a time, the Rockford Country club of thirty was handily defeated by the Shullsippi club of Janesville yesterday afternoon. The final score of 89 to 57 tells the story. Golf is a game for equable temperaments. No one rages at the umpire, asking that he be suspended from a tall tree. The vanquished accepts defeat with a smile, placing a large and abiding confidence in another day. The players were warm, tired, and happy when the contest ended at half-past five o'clock yesterday afternoon—but ready to do ample justice to the repast which the ladies of the Janesville club had prepared.

Some Professional Golf

After the contest was finished an exhibition match between "Scottie" McLeod, a professional who accompanied the Rockford team to the city, and Al Schaller was played. A large gallery followed the players with open admiration of the long, true drives made without apparent effort by the visitor. The Janesville player was beaten one-up. During the long twilight parties of ladies gowned in dazzling white tried their skill at the putting clocks or wandered off among the hills. An automobile toiled up the steep declivities, crept along the ridges, slithered like some huge insect against the rose-colored sky, and ran its zigzag course down the long slopes, its smothered protests sounding feebly in the distance. The musicians of Baldwin & McFarland's orchestra arrived about eight o'clock and gliding again gave way to animation. It was not for long, however. The Rockford visitors began to depart before nine o'clock and worn out by the exertions of the strenuous day, the Janesville players returned to the dance less frequently. The number of couples on the floor dwindled to a half a score and presently to two or three. Before eleven o'clock the orchestra was playing to an empty hall.

Score of the Game

SUGAR BEETS ARE DOING WELL

Edward Stark of The Wisconsin Sugar Beet Company Reports Fine Crops Throughout the State.

Most of the sugar beet fields in this locality are looking remarkably well. The thinning and bunching is about completed and in many instances the cultivation has ended as the plants completely shadow the ground, and the hard work until harvest is over. Edward Stark, who has completed a trip over the state in the interests of the Wisconsin Sugar Co. of Menomonie Falls, reports fine prospects. He says that the beet crop is looking fine and his company expects to have a fine harvest in Rock county this fall. Mr. Stark says that the farmers have all stood by their contracts and that it is the expectation that more will be secured for next year. He would not state how many acres were contracted for in this locality, but the total is believed to be a thousand or more.

LOEWENGREEN FLED FROM COUNTY FARM

Man Who Became Famous for a High Dive From Railroad Bridge Refuses to be Retired From Public Eye.

Oscar Loewengreen, who since he achieved notoriety by his high dive from the railroad bridge has been living modestly at the county poor house, became dissatisfied with his environment yesterday afternoon and decided to flee. He made good his escape and had gotten as far as Shepler when he was taken in hand by two farmers and held until the arrival of Supt. Kilham. Loewengreen is a man about fifty years of age. Too much whiskey is said to be the epitome of his life-story.

TRINITY CHURCH CHOIR TO CAMP OUT AT MCGEE POINT

Two Weeks Outing Nine Miles up the River Will Be Enjoyed by Singers.

Next week the boy choir of Trinity Episcopal church will leave for a two weeks' outing at McGee Point, nine miles up the river. Harry Ranous will be in charge of the camp.

FARMERS ARE WELL PLEASED THIS YEAR

The Weather, This Week Has Been Exceptionally Favorable For Tobacco Plants.

As between the corn and tobacco crops the prospects at this writing are very much in favor of the latter crop, says the Edgerton Tobacco Reporter. As between the tobacco and sugar beet fields, neither seems to have much advantage. Both have an excellent showing, and promise exceedingly well. The weather of the week is exceptionally favorable for a good growth of all crops which are making such phenomenal progress that farmers have every reason to be pleased at the present prospects.

Some thirty odd members of the Janesville Tobacco Leaf association were right royally entertained at a picnic all day Monday, given by the lumber firm of Schaller & McKee. The event took place at McKee's park, some seven miles up river. Mr. McKee's launch "Lorna" and the steamboat "Alexander B" conveyed the merry guests to the grounds where games and refreshments were and of the daintiest kind were indulged in during the day. Stories of adventure among the jungles, stories of how tobacco should not be grown and tales of how to better the markets and tummy experiences related that cling to the life of a tobacco merchant, and a most enjoyable time was spent throughout the whole day. Mr. Geo. McKee was "high chief" and the way he dished up the delicacies to his guests was an act to be envied. The merry throng returned home at dusk with nothing but the highest praise for their genial hosts.

The insurance adjusters were in the city on Monday and the adjustment of the loss to L. B. Carle & Son, that was water soaked and smoked by the fire adjoining their building was left to an arbitration committee whose decision will be rendered next week.

The market here the past week seems to hold the stand taken a week ago and some good sales are reported.

F. S. Baines shipped 4300s 1901-02 during the week and bought 174s 1901. Mr. Baines continues operating his sorting rooms at London, Madison and this city.

It is reported that S. B. Hestides sold 5800s of 1901 during the week. The warehouse of M. L. Greene has again closed down and in the afternoon ice cream and cake were in order.

Geo. S. Rumrill has disposed of 1300s of 1902 on Friday of the past week and secured at Madison on the same date several cars of 1903 goods.

Edgerton

There is a quiet picking away at the remnants of last season's crop still going on, though it is generally conceded that the unsold portion is now reduced below the usual crops at this date.

There is not much improvement to note in the condition of the cured leaf markets. We learn of a 5000s shipment to export by a local packer, while more pretentious transactions are recorded by our Janesville correspondent.

The new crop is coming along under the very best of weather conditions and gives unusual promise at this stage.

The shipments out of storage reach 12 carloads, 6000s, from this market, to all points for the week.

CUPID AT HELM OF THE CRAFT

Crack University Athlete Drifting Down The Rock With His Lady Love.

If one watches the course of the placid Rock carefully today and tomorrow they may catch sight of a craft with Cupid, the little god of love, stationed at the helm drifting down the stream. Word has come from Madison that such a vessel is on its way towards St. Louis via Janesville. According to the dispatch Fred Long, crack athlete of the University of Wisconsin, and holder of the university hammer throw record, is taking his sweetest heart on a water trip to the world's fair at St. Louis. He left Madison in a rowboat with a member of a prominent society, but the name of the craft has been successfully concealed. They will navigate down through the lake system and the Rock river to the Mississippi, thence to St. Louis. The water trip will occupy three weeks, according to Mr. Long's plan. The novel trip was the result of a wager made at the university athletic training table. The trip by water from Madison to St. Louis is entirely practicable and has been made already by several parties. Most of the distance is made by merely drifting. Some inconveniences are met in portages in the Rock river. Mr. Long resides in Davenport, Iowa.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF FOUR STEERS IN ILLINOIS

Jesse Edwards and Jacob Stocker of Oakley Held at Monroe Jail.

Jesse Edwards and Jacob Stocker are the names of two young men hailing from Oakley who are imprisoned in the Green county jail at Monroe, charged with stealing four steers from David S. Feltz of Davis, Ill. The two men are alleged to have subsequently offered the property for sale to Lex Garde of the town of Beloit at an advantageous price. These were the animals that came into the hands of Chief Schell at Beloit, which were to officiate at the barbecue on the fourth, but the owner not been discovered. The men virtually admit their guilt, claiming that they were intoxicated when they drove the cattle from the yard.

E. O. Donnell transacted business in Fond du Lac Thursday.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Saturday, July 16, 1864.—Musical Solace.—The attendance at the Madame Anderson's Solace last evening, was very large, embracing among the numbers many of our best citizens. The evening was delightful, the music excellent, and the whole affair reflected credit upon the talented young lady at the head of the establishment. We understand that her school is very flourishing, and that only a lack of room prevents a wider scope to its beneficial influence. It is to be hoped that the efforts to put this institution on a permanent basis will be successful.

McNellana.—Out beyond the Monterey bridge is the filled Institute, out beyond that is the pleasant mansion of one McNellana, and around this is a beautiful grove. Within that grove on Thursday evening last an assemblage of over one hundred persons of both sexes did congregate for the purpose of having a good time and driving dull care away. They were a few judges, lawyers, clergymen, editors, county officers (who seek recreation), city officials, government officials and just farmers and mechanics enough to make the crowd honest and respectable. What a supper that was, gotten up by fair hands and eaten in the fair shade of the emerald branches. It would make good old Epicurus toss easily in his quiet resting place to mention it in detail, so we forbear. To sum up briefly and generally, it was good to be there. Those who went stayed away lost a golden link out of the chain of human happiness that will never be supplied.

Winter Wheat.—Mr. J. Godfrey has left upon our table some specimens of winter wheat, taken from his field in Lima. It is somewhat shrunken, but Mr. Godfrey thinks it will yield thirty bushels to the acre.

Suffocation.—The weather today has been intensely oppressive, the thermometer standing 92 in the shade.

Congregational church.—Robert C. Benson, minister. Morning service, 10:30 o'clock, sermon by the pastor on the influence of Jesus; the Bible school at 12 m.; Young People's meeting at 4:30 p. m.; union evening service at the Baptist church, sermon by Rev. J. T. Henderson.

Presbyterian church.—J. T. Henderson, pastor. Morning worship, 10:30; Miss Grace Glenn, returned missionary from Japan, will give an address upon Missions, an offering for missions will be received; Sunday school, 12 m.; Y. P. S. C. E., 6:30; union services, 7:30 p. m., at Baptist church.

Central Methodist Episcopal church.—Corner of Court and Main streets. J. H. Tippet, pastor. Morning service at 10:30, subject, of sermon—"What is the Gospel?" Class meeting and Sunday school at noon; Epworth league at 6:30, topic—"The World's Gain Through Universal Peace;" evening worship at 7:30 in the Baptist church, Rev. J. T. Henderson preaching the sermon. Our Sunday school picnic will be next Tuesday at Richholz park. Members of the Sunday school will get their tickets for the picnic after the lessons is through with tomorrow.

Norwegian Lutheran church.—Service in English at 10:30 a. m., by Rev. O. J. Kvale; Sunday school at 9:15 a. m.

Baptist church.—Morning service at 10:30 will be in charge of the Murphy league; Sunday school at 12:00; Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30 p. m.; union services at 7:30, preaching by Rev. J. T. Henderson.

First Church of Christ Scientist.—Services are held in Phoenix block, West Milwaukee St., Sunday, 10:30 a. m.; Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school, 12 m.; reading room open daily except Sunday from 2 to 4 p. m.

WILL TRUE GRAFT BE EXPOSED NOW

Lincoln Steffens Of McClure's Magazine Visits Madison And Hears Political Dispute.

Mr. Lincoln Steffens, the famous magazine exposé of "graft" is the latest gentleman from the east to favor Wisconsin with a visit in order to "study the Wisconsin situation," at Madison. As usual, both of the factions laid for the sucker, filled him up with dinners and lake scenery, and assured him that he must beware of the misleading and unwarranted verities given by the other side. Steffens is a little man with a scholar's beard, who was city editor of the New York Commercial until he got off on this tack of exposing grafting; and his articles in McClure's have attracted wide attention.

Unlike most of the veritables who drift in with the tide from the Coney Island district, Steffens had but little to say—though his questions were brutally direct. He had a number of interviews with the governor, but he did not until an hour before Steffens left for Chicago (Thursday evening), when the visitor was thoroughly loaded, via the Chicago & North-Western. Only $7.50 round trip from Janesville, Wis., return limit, seven (7) days. Generalizations did not impress interest this human corker; facts, the world's fair at minimum of exorbitant charges only had attractions for him. Thus when some of the standard, stop-over privileges, etc. Full warts began to tell him of the information as to train schedules, appointments of friends to office, Steffens threw up his hands and said, "Don't give me that; that's only good for application to ticket agents' offices." When told that La Follette of the Chicago & North-Western R.R. is ambitious and a defector, Steffens shut off the flow with "The more I John C. Snow, Iverton—Wife was hear of your man La Follette these five years; nothing did her more I am reminded of Roosevelt," any good, until I found La Follette's but when the faithful told him of Rocky Mountain Tea. Now she's the $2,000 school book deal, the re-storing and healthy, so is baby. 35 fuses to let his reform measures pass, Tea or Tablets, Smith Drug Co. because he needed them later as campaign measures, and his long distance telephone setting up of contests for M. & St. P. R'y the state convention, Steffens grew for the benefit of those desiring to silent and said "Go on." He was after the Dells of the Wisconsin river names and dates. His sleuther at Kilbourn, Wis., excursion telling with La Follette's was known, 1904. Special rates Fridays and effort to get support for his primary Saturdays and for parties of ten or bill by promising offices. He got themore.

VERDICT OF THE PARTY

From the report of the Committee on Credentials to the REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, which was unanimously adopted by that convention, June 25, 1904.

Your committee report it to be their final judgment that the convention which elected John G. Spooner, J. V. Quarles, J. W. Babcock and Emil Hanson as delegates at large, and their alternates at large, to this convention from the state of Wisconsin WAS THE REGULAR CONVENTION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN WISCONSIN, and that the delegates elected by it are the regular elected delegates at large from the state of Wisconsin to the republican convention, and, as such, are entitled to seats in this convention.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

The bankers and business men of Chicago recently discovered that many of their employees were betting on the races and indulging in other forms of gambling. A prohibitive ban was placed upon the practice by an order to discharge any man who refused to give it up.

This was a wholesome order and will produce good results. The railway companies find it necessary to adopt the same policy with their employees in regard to the drink habit, and this enforced prohibition has given the country a temperate railway service. The traveling public would be as much surprised to meet an intoxicated railway man, as a church audience would be shocked by the presence of a drunken pastor.

Young men especially need this sort of business legislation. It is a better safeguard than all the prohibition laws that were ever enacted, and ought to be an object lesson for the prohibition party.

If half the energy was expended on employers, in convincing them that it would pay to employ only men of temperate habits, that is now expended in a futile effort to drive out the saloon, results would be accomplished.

It is argued by some people that restriction of this kind interferes with personal liberty and that, in this free land, every man has a right to be a law unto himself so far as his morals are concerned, but the argument is not sound.

Every employer has the right to say to the men in his employ: "If you work for me you must be sober," and if the railway companies can enforce such a command, it can be enforced in every other department.

The man or the corporation, who prevents a young man from becoming a drunkard or a gambler, is the best friend that the boy has, and while restraint may be irksome, and prohibitive laws may seem tyrannical, when the boy comes to himself he will appreciate the discipline and be grateful.

In this rapid age, when the procession is moving so fast that it is difficult to keep in line, the disposition to accumulate without effort is very pronounced. There are more men today attempting to live on their wits, than at any time in the history of the country. "Something for nothing" is the watchword of the hour.

Games of chance were never so numerous, or more alluring, and the assortment is large enough to accommodate all classes. The man who wants adventure and excitement, becomes reckless and joins the ranks of the train robber or bandit.

If his tastes are more refined he joins the church and under the guise of hypocrisy speculates with other people's money.

If he is simply a victim of general epidemic, in mild form, he buys a block of hot air stock at the suggestion of some smooth promoter, or if short of funds, he plays the slot machines, or dallies with the pasteboards.

From Wall Street to the five points in the Bowery City, the spirit of gambling, in one form or another, is rife.

Some one has said: "Man made the cities, God the country—but the devil made the small towns." And a limited amount of observation will verify the statement. Almost every town has its poker room and thousands of young men are cultivating a taste for a habit that always ends in defeat and ruin.

Gilbert Hubbard has written a chapter on gambling, for the July "Pittsburgh," that should be read by every young man in the land. He says, among many other things:

"No man who plays cards for money can keep his position long. The fact is, none of us have a surplus of brains, and if you are going to succeed in business, all the power you have to your credit is demanded. The man who can play cards at night and do business in the daytime, hasn't yet been born."

"Life is a bank account, with so much divine energy at your disposal. What are you going to do with it? If you draw your checks for this, you cannot for that—take your choice. And above all, don't draw on the bank of futurity by breathing bad air, keeping bad hours and bad company."

"If your gambler is on a salary, he very often comes around for his wages before pay day; then he gets to discounting his salary to a money shark; then, if he can, he will 'borrow' his pay before he earns it. He intends to pay it back—oh, yes! He wins and pays it back."

"This encourages him to borrow more the next time. He takes more in order to win more. He is now obliged to play heavily because his debts are accumulating. It is an old story, and dozens of men in Sing Sing can tell you all about it."

"In strict scientific economies the gambler is a parasite and a thief. He consumes but does not produce. 'If four men start in to play poker with ten dollars each, or a thousand dollars each, it is just a matter of mathematical calculation before all of them will have nothing. All they have will go to the rake-off and for cigars and drink, and the midnight lunch."

"John E. Madden, who has made a million dollars out of horse racing, says that defeat and nothing but defeat awaits the better on cards or horses. And of all the fools, the biggest is the man who bets on 'a sure thing.' I quit betting years ago, and if I ever bet again, it will be because the disease has got the better of my business judgment."

"Gambling means blurred vision, weak muscles, shaky nerves. Loss of sleep, lack of physical exercise, irregular meals, bad air, excitement, form a devil's monopoly of bad things—and the end is disgrace, madness, death and the grave."

Mr. Hubbard is a forceful writer, as well as a man of keen observation. What he says of gambling is true to the letter.

Life is largely a lottery at the best, and there is enough of chance connected with every day experience to relieve monotony.

While seed time and harvest is promised, the farmer watches his crop with solicitude and never feels that it is secure until harvested.

Men devote the best energies of life to business or to becoming skillful artisans in some calling, and then are lost in the shuffle as the car of progress advances.

The young man prepares himself for life work and is ready to enter the channel selected with flattering prospects, when the current is changed by untoward circumstances.

Life is too serious a proposition to invite more chances than fall to the lot of the average individual, and the young man who deliberately or thoughtlessly cultivates the gambling habit, is standing on dangerous ground. There is always hope for a drunkard, but none for the gambler.

The former may be honest, and truthful, the latter is destitute of both virtues and an outcast from the business world. Boys, don't gamble.

PRESS COMMENT.

Eau Claire Leader: Governor Yardman of Mississippi, calls President Roosevelt, "That national peril." Call it "pearl" and let it go at that.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: The latest society fad is to be tall. Some of these fine days society will hit the ceiling with its ideology.

Oshkosh Northwestern: After the fiasco of the Wall boom, which had been carried to St. Louis in the inside pocket of Mayor Rose, the democrats of this state are now trying to find out where they are at.

Seranton Tribune: Gross earnings of railroads for June show a gain of 4.2 per cent. over June a year ago. For May these same roads showed a loss of 4 per cent. The turning point has been passed. Prosperity is safe.

Milwaukee Sentinel: The prohibitionists have raised $100,000 for their campaign fund. But how in thunder are the boys to spend the money?

Racine Journal: It was time for the Stradivarius violin story to turn up. It has and this time it was bought for $6 by a street musician and sold by him for $3,500.

Green Bay Gazette: When the silent Parker at last spoke he gave the democratic convention a jolt that will go down in the history of that stormy party.

Success: It is not known who invented the piano, the credit being variously given to Christopher, Gottlieb Schroeter, of Saxony; Marius, of France; and Bartolomeo Christoffel, of Italy. The latter had completed four instruments in 1709, and two dated 1720 and 1725 still exist.

Chicago Inter Ocean: Better open good and open evil than secret evil that seeks to masquerade as good. Better than either the old, straight way. The moral of "The Scarlet Letters" still burns vividly: "Be true! Be true! Be true! Show freely to the world, if not your worst, yet some truth whereby the worst may be inferred!"

Grant County Herald: An editor down in Texas published the Ten Commandments in his paper. The result was that he lost half his subscribers before he had an opportunity to explain that nothing personal was meant.

Evansville Review: We opine that many of our pastors will discuss the merits of desecration of the Sabbath, at their meeting next Sunday. The baseball game billed for that day will furnish the subject.

Chicago Chronicle: Colonel Bryan's somewhat grudging support of the mysterious one of Bryanistic orthodoxy has not yet been completed with. The candidate should hasten to forward his subscription to the Com-moner.

Superior Telegram: This is not the domestic economy department, but nevertheless if you want your ice to last well wrap it up in newspapers. It will keep the refrigerator as cool as headful and will last twice as long.

Racine News: The London News said, on Shakespeare's birthday, "He is our supreme national asset. India will go some day, but Shakespeare in our enduring possession, indestructible by time or decay." Is not the "News" claiming too much? Shakespeare is not a British asset by a good deal, any more than an American asset. England will go some day, but Shakespeare will stay right where he is. England and America are parts of his domain.

Waukesha Freeman: "Recent reports from the world's fair go to show that Wisconsin is not improving her opportunities, so far as the cheese exhibit is concerned. The Badger state could doubtless distance all competitors on a cheese exhibit, but has neglected to do so. It seems that Wisconsin cheesemakers prefer to quietly 'saw wood' at home." The above from The Fond du Lac Commonwealth is based on an astonishing degree of misinformation. Wisconsin has a fine cheese exhibit at the fair and took the best of the honors that were awarded at the first bi-monthly contest.

Oregon Observer: Wisconsin came out with flying colors in the cheese exhibits at the St. Louis exposition; in fact, the product of the Badger state carried off everything in sight. The honors in the Swiss cheese department fell to none other than our own Green county and Oswald Brager, a Monroe cheesemaker, is the man who made the cheese that took the ribbon. The scores were announced last week and the cheese made by Brager was given first prize and is at the head of the list of foreign cheese awards. The cheese scored 93 points. In the American cheese exhibit the product of Wisconsin made a clean sweep.

Evening Wisconsin: Are Wisconsin people willing to adopt the policy of hating and suspecting everybody with whom they are not in complete agreement on political questions? That would mean a war against society. It would, if persisted in to its logical conclusion, lead to a state of things in which there could be no politics because there would be no society. Nobody is always in perfect agreement with all his friends on politics or on anything else. It is by friendly intercourse and candid discussion that each man reaches final conclusions as to what he himself really believes. Sometimes a talk with a friend converts him to the friend's point of view; sometimes it confirms him unshakably in his own. It is the only process by which public questions can be examined on all sides and equitably resolved in the end.

London, July 16.—At a meeting of the privy council at Buckingham palace, at which King Edward presided, the request of the relatives of the late Mr. Kruger, former president of the South African republic, for the interment of his remains in the Transvaal was considered and it was subsequently announced that the desired permission had been telegraphed to Clarendon, Switzerland, where Mr. Kruger died, through the British minister at Berne.

Near Death in Niagara Falls. Buffalo, N. Y., July 16.—Edward Lloyd was walking on Willow Island and stepped on a rock. He fell into the water and was carried toward Niagara falls. Just above the Goat Island bridge he struck a rock and managed to cling to it.

At dinner at the Royal Academy, Alma Tadema gave a curious account of Robert Browning's sight, maintaining that with one eye he could read the number of a picture at the end of a long gallery; while with the other, without artificial assistance, he could write an ode of Horace on a piece of paper of the size of a three-penny bit.

BURGLARS ON ANOTHER RAID

ENTER THREE HOUSES THROUGH WINDOWS LAST NIGHT.

"YOU GET OUT OF HERE"

Was What Miss Kennedy Said And Housebreakers "Got"—Big Haul At Inman's.

Burglars again made a wholesale raid in Janesville last evening. It is not certain that there were more than one of them but it is believed that the same man or men visited the homes of Miss Mary Kennedy on Bluff street, of Edward Inman on Prospect avenue, and Mrs. Anna Hanchett at 103 Sinclair street. In every instance the entrance was effected by removing the window screens.

Told Him to Get Out.
Miss Mary Kennedy sleeps in an alcove off a sitting room at 202 North Bluff street and an alcove on the opposite side serves her sister for the same purpose. Miss Elizabeth Kennedy is away on a vacation. About a quarter past two o'clock this morning Miss Mary Kennedy was awakened by the noise of someone moving about in the sitting room and rattling the bureau drawer. Presently the invader scratched and lighted a parlor match which seemed to burn for an interminable time. The light showed that the visitor was a man and he was leisurely examining the contents of the drawer when Miss Kennedy opened the curtains of the alcove and spoke to him sharply, saying, "You get out of here!" The man dropped the candle he was carrying and made a dive for the window. In his haste an elastic sleeve holder was caught and pulled off and this is one of the scanty "clues" which the police now have in their possession.

Boots Amounting to $100.
Entrance into the Inman residence at 257 Prospect avenue was gained through the dining room window. No one was awakened by the marauders and the theft was not discovered until seven o'clock this morning. The burglar and his accomplice, if he had any, made the biggest haul here, being particularly partial to the property of Ralph Inman. A coat, hat, shirt-studs, sleeve buttons, a pipe, and numerous other articles, besides about $20 in money were taken. Mr. Inman figures his net loss at about $100. The silver in the dining room was disturbed but none of it taken. It is thought that something frightened the burglars away while they were at work in that part of the house.

Took Gold Thimble.
It was about a quarter past two o'clock when Mrs. Anna Hanchett heard someone moving about in her residence at 103 Sinclair street and shortly thereafter she distinctly heard him let himself out the dining room window to the ground. A gold thimble that was on a centre table on the first floor was the only thing taken. Both in this residence and the Inman home traces of candle grease were found, indicating that the same individual or individuals operated in all three places.

LOCAL CHURCH IS MUCH INTERESTED

Dedication Of The New Christian Science Church At Concord Is Described.

Local Christian Scientists are interested in the dedication of the beautiful new Christian Science church at Concord, N. H., a gift from the Rev. Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, to the First Church of Christ Scientist of Concord, N. H. The members of this denomination, in large numbers, from all parts of the country, are expected there for the church dedication on Sunday, July 17. The cost of the handsome granite building is about $200,000, and will be dedicated free from debt, which is the usual practice with the numerous Christian Science churches which have been built in this and foreign lands.

The dedicatory services on Sunday will be of a simple nature, in accord with the desire of Mrs. Eddy. They will be held at 10:30 a. m., 3 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. The important feature of these religious services will be the dedicatory message from the generous donor of this magnificent church edifice, the Rev. Mary Baker Eddy.

The architecture of the church is the Italian or southern Gothic, to which the famous Concord granite is admirably adapted. Over the main entrance, carved in Tennessee marble, is the significant inscription: "A gift from Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, to First Church of Christ, Scientist, Concord, New Hampshire." A striking feature of the church exterior is the stone tower and lantern, which rise into the air 165 feet, being visible from all parts of the neighboring country and forming a handsome landmark.

The erection of this magnificent church was made possible by Mrs. Eddy's generous gift of one hundred and twenty thousand dollars. The loyalty of Christian Scientists to their beloved leader has been well illustrated in spontaneous and unsolicited donations toward the furnishings of the Home Church of Mrs. Eddy. The local church has given liberally, and, indeed, Concord's attitude quite generally shows that the proverb is reversed, and that in Mrs. Eddy's case a prophet has honor in her own country as well as elsewhere.

SOCIETY.

The Shinnissippi Golf club not only won from the golfers of the Country club yesterday but achieved a double victory in that they won the admiration of the Forest cityites who visited the Bower city. This is the fourth match the two teams have played, the Badger players winning each time on their own grounds but bowing their banner to the Country club drivers of the elusive little white ball on the course of the latter, says the Rockford Star. It can be said in favor of the hosts yesterday that they earned more to entertain their guests than register a victory, for Rockford brought up so many players the contest, and that was the motto of the day, each Bower cityite devoting himself and herself to the care and comfort of the visitors, who were handsomely looked after. A most edible lunch was served at noon, and a sumptuous dinner at nightfall. The waitresses were Janesville's fairest daughters and that implies that grace and beauty were present in fullest measure. After the noon hour while the contestants were on the links the ladies of the Rockford party were entertained with putting matches out of doors and cards within and in the evening dancing was indulged in until the special car took the guests home.

The Rockford party that were the guests of the Shinnissippi Golf club yesterday was composed of following persons:

Messrs. and Mesdames—O. H. Wheat, H. S. Reek, J. Fritholof F. Nelson, Roland Shumway, F. D. Keeler, Will Hintze, A. W. Wheelock, Stanton Burpee, C. H. Humming, J. Stanley Browne, B. H. Treat.

McCreadie, Charles Gorham, Lee Stewart, Fred Church, Fred Schlick, F. L. Trille, Fred McLeod, P. F. Stone, Harry Williams, William Fitch, A. P. Smith, Ralph Hinchliffe, W. H. Helm, R. E. Wood.

Mesdames—Lloyd Scott, A. Appel, Louise Nelson, Mildred Ingersoll, Lytta Lyttle, Strong, Chicago, Elizabeth Lane, Bessie Hodgson, Jennie Walker, Dulchunt, Kalamazoo.

Last evening about one hundred lady friends of Mrs. Kate Stringer assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Viney on Washington street and perpetrated a surprise in the form of a linen shower on Miss Stringer, who will wed Mr. William McClusky of Bloomington, Delaware, next Wednesday. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner by the guests who had assembled to bid Miss Stringer farewell and wish her all the happiness and prosperity which could be bestowed on any bride-to-be. They presented their hostess with several elegant pieces of linen as a token of respect and esteem in which she was held by her many friends in this city. Miss Stringer leaves for Bloomington Monday and will make that city her future home.

This afternoon forty lady friends of Mrs. Alonzo C. Cutts helped her to celebrate her eightieth birthday. They presented her with a beautiful morris chair as a token of their esteem. Thomas H. Wright and family who have been visiting at the home of C. T. Wright on South Jackson street have returned to Ft. Dodge, Iowa.

The companies whose brawny boys in blue strolled through the streets today were from Beloit, Whitewater and Monroe, and they left on a special train of eight coaches over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. ## In the Sporting Arena

Walter J. Travis as a Man and as a Golfer. The Vanderbilt Auto Cup—Pugilistic Talk of the Hour.

American golfers are looking forward to the annual amateur tournament with very little of the uncertainty that has heralded championship meetings heretofore. All golfers have conceded the title to Walter J. Travis for another year at least, and the tournament will be nothing more than another opportunity for Travis to exhibit his sensational prowess.

By his comparatively recent victory abroad in the amateur championship of Great Britain, Travis sealed heights once considered inaccessible to Americans, and that he will have difficulty in carrying away another American championship trophy none of us is qualified to state.

Travis owes his skill to his all-around strength. As a putter he is at the top of the list. His knowledge of golf was not obtained from professional instructors, as is generally the case with prominent amateurs. He studied the game alone. He spent winter nights and summer days in working out the secrets of the ancient pastime. He consulted no books; he experimented. Is it any wonder that he succeeded to the greatest honor possible for exerted in other directions Travis would become a leader in the stock market or the discovery of some secret sought for through centuries by alchemists. He is the type of man that seems opposition, that ridicules prophesied disaster, that has just enough confidence in himself to achieve his ambitions. Self confidence of this sort is not common. It is a gift. It might be termed genius in a different garb from that in which it is usually found.

The Vanderbilt auto trophy has been on exhibition in New York, and high praise has been awarded its donor.

The cup is to be used for by representatives from every corner of the automobile making world. The American Automobile association, of which Mr. Vanderbilt, Jr., is a director, will conduct the race, which starts Oct. 9 on Long Island.

The cup (or bowl) has a capacity of ten and a half gallons. Some idea of its size may thus be obtained.

A drawing of the donor, William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., in a racing car decorates one side of the cup. Mr. Vanderbilt has officially named the trophy "The Challenge cup."

According to Lou Houseman of Chicago, whose opinion on all matters pertaining to the rug merits more than passing consideration, there is no longer any room for doubt as to the fighting ability of Frankie Nell of San Francisco and his right to the title of world's lightweight champion.

He clinched and copper riveted his claim to that distinction by knocking out the best had in Chicago at his weight, Harry Forbes, in three slashing rounds before the Waverly club. And when all was over the spectators went away thoroughly convinced that the California lad is the most destructive little piece of fighting machinery the ring has produced since the erstwhile "Terrible Terry" McGovern was in his prime.

In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal coat of hair. #### ONE WORD IN TIME

Is Better Than Two Afterwards. A Chance to Profit By a Janesville Man's Experience.

It is a strange thing how people will put away an opportunity until too late; it's only little things that go to make up our every day existence; the trouble is we don't pay sufficient attention to them. Backache is a little thing. Sometimes it comes after a hard day's work or a slight cold. It will pass off, you say; it's only the result of overtaking my back. It isn't the fault of your back but your kidneys. The exertion or straining has interfered with their delicate mechanism. You call it backache, but it really is kidney ache. If the kidneys are not relieved, chronic disorders set in and this is where the "little thing" should not be passed over. A Janesville man has learned to appreciate what delay means.

Mr. H. W. Rodgers, carpenter of 210 South Main street says "My wife had kidney complaint and rheumatism for five years suffering a great deal from pain across the loins. Doan's Kidney Pills, sold by the People's Drug Co., brought much longer for and gratifying results. First there was no visible change and she came to the conclusion that they were like all other remedies she had tried but finally the aching and the distress in the small of the back disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for U. S. Remember the name. Doan's excise no other.

a golfer to achieve and that he was the first to achieve it?

Walter J. Travis, Australian by birth, is a naturalized citizen of the United States. He first played golf in America in 1896. His development since that time has been truly remarkable.

Travis is now the amateur champion of America for the third time. He was champion also in 1900 and 1901. He was metropolitan champion in 1900 and 1902 and has won scores of tournaments, large and small. He is the first American to win in a tournament of any sort in England.

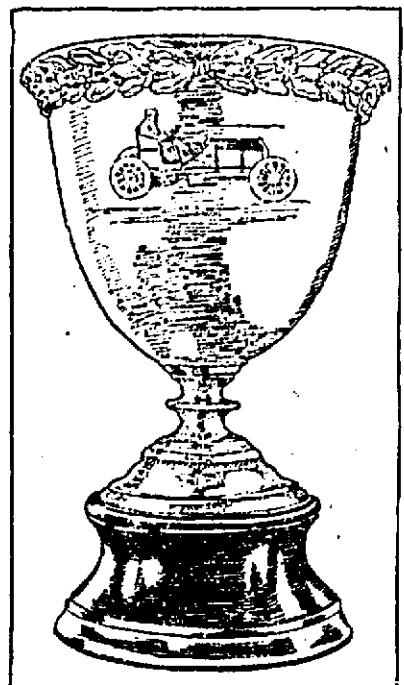

Travis has always been an admirer of the famous English expert, Harry Vardon, and from him received much encouragement in years past.

Travis did not once lose the lead throughout the English championship match. Every stroke was executed with the machine-like precision that has so often proved fatal to his American rivals. His steel nerves never shook. At times overjoyed Britishers blessed him when he made brilliant strokes, but the champion never heeded. He had his eyes, his mind and his heart centered on the battered little white ball that was making new fame for him. He was the Travis that proved victor on a score of courses at home, Travis the sphinx, Travis the unmovable, Travis the unemotional, Travis the automaton.

Yet he was more than an automaton. Behind the accurate pendulum swing of the arms, the steady grip of the club and the icy indifference to surroundings were glinting eyes and a brain that had made a scientific study of the great game. Every move, every tightening of the muscles, every shift of foot or hand, had its significance. He did nothing for show. Every effort had a direct bearing on the end, the world's championship.

With the same dogged persistency er. He seldom uses his right for offensive purposes, probably for the good and sufficient reason that he doesn't need it. The left is quite enough to do the work. It won Nell the championship in the first place and from present indications should retain the title.

THE W. K. VANDERBILT, JR., AUTO TROPHY.

for him through many long days to come.

From now on his principal trouble will be securing matches at anything like a reasonable weight. He outclasses all the men in or around his own grade so far that matchmakers of clubs would consider it waste of time to pit any of them against him.

Frank McNutt, a former resident of Richmond, Ind., and a member of the United States diplomatic corps at various points, has been reappointed chamberlain by Pope Pius, having held that position under Pope Leo.

The loss by fire of the Jefferson ice house at Powers lake has been settled at $1,000 on the building and $1,700 on the ice. The icehouse will be rebuilt at once.

MURDERS WIFE AND DAUGHTER

WRITES LETTER TO PARTNER

Missive is a Pitiful Appeal to His Friend to Forgive His Rash Act, Requesting Leniency in Judgment and Declaring Repentance.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 16.—One of the most shocking tragedies that ever occurred in this city came to light Friday when the dead bodies of Edgar T. Washburn, a member of the grain firm of Heathfield & Washburn on the board of trade; Washburn's wife and his daughter, Gladys, 15 years old, were found in a bedroom of their home at 52 Putnam street, this city. Mr. Washburn had shot and killed his wife and daughter and then turned the weapon upon his own head and killed himself.

It is believed the deed was committed while Mr. Washburn was suffering from a fit of insanity. He had written a letter to a relative recently saying he was having troubles in business. As far as is known the members of the family had not had any trouble among themselves.

Spend Night in Gayety.

Thursday evening was spent by the Washburn family at the house of a neighbor. There was music and games and all the members of the Washburn family appeared in a jovial mood.

A letter written by Washburn to W. G. Heathfield, his business partner, was received at the latter's home during the day. In this letter, which was very long, one could read the intent to commit suicide, but no reference was made to his wife or daughter.

The letter made numerous references to things going wrong in different business affairs, but Mr. Heathfield said he had been unable as yet to look into the matters referred to; that while some of their business deals had not been successful, yet on the whole their business had been profitable.

He said he did not know whether Mr. Washburn had any separate business deals outside of the firm.

"Mr. Washburn and I have been in business since Jan. 1, 1900," Mr. Heathfield said. "I never saw anything that would cause me to imagine such a terrible act on his part. He was 49 years old and his wife was some years younger. He had one son, Dr. E. P. Washburn."

Kills Wife and Daughter.

The tragedy was discovered by a relative who called at the Washburn house shortly before noon. When the police arrived they found Mrs. Washburn and her daughter lying dead, side by side, in bed and Washburn was dead on the floor at the foot of the bed. Evidently Washburn shot the girl first as she lay in bed. When Mrs. Washburn aroused by the shot, partly caused herself in the bed Washburn fired the second shot, the bullet entering the woman's left temple and causing instant death. Washburn then picked up a mirror and, taking aim, shot himself in the right temple. The news of the tragedy had the effect of practically closing the Grain Exchange for the remainder of the day.

Letter is Pitiful.

Washburn's letter to his partner was most pitiful. It said in part:

"I am about to take a step which will be a severe blow to you and to all who have ever held me in regard and esteem. I have striven hard to make a success of life here, but there seems to be something that forever upsets my plans. I have hoped that I might succeed in business, not so much that I craved the money for selfish purposes as that I might do a good work in the world.

"Do not think I feel that I am getting off easily. My belief in a future life teaches me that I must suffer untold agony, but I am a blight upon those whom I love and upon those who love me and it seems best that I should drop out of the lives of all of earth's children and perhaps some time, somewhere in the future, I may be permitted to work myself into a niche in life where I may be able to atone for my errors.

"Be lenient with me, for I love you as a brother, and if I had 10,000 lives I would give them all to save you from the pain and misery that you must suffer through me.

"It grieves me to lose the esteem of my associates and if there is anyone whom I have wronged it has not been intentional and I hope that they may forgive me as they would be forgiven, for I am sincerely repentant of any wrong that I have done."

Coal Miners May Strike.

Kansas City, Mo., July 16.—A general strike of more than 3,000 coal miners in the Southwestern district is likely to ensue soon after Sept. 1 unless the conference now in progress at Pittsburg, Kan., results in a wage agreement.

Drops $3,000 From Train.

Omaha, Neb., July 16.—While the Northwestern express was traversing northern Nebraska B. F. Reavis, a merchant of Falls City, Neb., dropped $3,000 out of the car window in taking off his coat.

Her Whipping Position.

A young woman applicant for a school in a Kansas town was asked to answer the question: "What is your position upon whipping children?" And her reply was: "My usual position is on a chair, with the child held firmly across my knee, face downward." She got the school.

Petersburg to Port Arthur.

The total distance from St. Petersburg to Port Arthur by the Russian Trans-Siberian railway and the Russian lines in Manchuria is 5,913 miles, or practically twice the distance from New York to San Francisco.

THE BENEDICT TRADING CO.'S BLUE TRADING STAMP

EIGHT years ago the foundation of the enormous business was laid by Mr. M. S. Benedict. Since the beginning the business has been pushed and developed along the broadest possible lines. Marked success breeds imitation and it is but natural that from time to time during our long and successful onward march the number of these imitators that have come and gone are legion; but like a comet in the sky they disappear as quickly as they come, and leave a sadder but wiser public. The foundation of the Blue Stamp is built on permanency and will endure as long as we adhere to our original and fixed policy of giving the greatest possible value for Blue Stamps. We regard the selection of Blue Stamps in preference to all others by the following prominent merchants of the country as a splendid endorsement of our system and methods of doing business. These merchants all do an annual business from $1,000,000 to $10,000,000.
